From Washington.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs is in receipt of dispatches from Superintendent Nesmit, who has charge of Indian affairs in Washington and Oregon Territories. In the mails that had been received up to 1 o'clock to-day, there was no allusions made to the supposed that other dispatches came in the steamer, and that they have not yet been distributed at the post office. No apprehensions appear to be entertained as to the safety of Indian Agents in the country. We learn further, that Gov. Stevens, the delegate from Washington Territory, has received letters Perces and Flatheads continued friendly, despite the efforts of the Spokanes to incite them to join in hostilities against the whites. The health of General Cass has continued to improve, and it is hardly likely he will be detained from his official duties at the Department longer than to-day. Baron Stoecki, the Russian Ambassador, is now in this city, preparing for his departure for Europe, on leave of absence. He axpects to sail in the steamer which leaves on next Wednesday,

The War Department is said to be making preparations for the organization of an efficient staff for Washington and Oregon Territories, preliminary to the contemplated operations against the Indians of that region.

Messrs. Powell & McCulloh, the Peace Commissioners to Utah, arrived in this city last evening. They are said to represent the affairs of the Territory to be in a condition of general quietude, and that the recent differences were amicably adjusted on a permanent basis, and on terms honorable to the General Government .- Wash. Egyptian Rags in a Yankee Paper Mill. A correspondent of the Journal of Commerce, writing of the paper mills at Gardiner, Me., says:

"Yesterday I visited, in company with Mayor Woods, (of Gardiner,) the two principal paper factories, and I was astonished in looking at the millions of pounds of rags. piled up in warehouses or spread over acres of ground, to find that a portion of them had recently arrived from Alexandria in Egypt .-They were the most disagreeably odoriferous old clothes that I have ever had the bad fortune to smell. This, doubtless was owing to the fact that a part of them were in a damaged state. The Egyptian rags had been collected from all the corners of the Pacha's dominions-from the living and the dead .-How many cast off garments of loose, Turkish, ragged breaches; and how many headpieces in the shape of old doffed turbans the deponent sayeth not. But the most singular and the cleanest division of the whole filthy mass came not from the limbs of the present gencration of travellers-pilgrims, peasants, soldiers and sailors of Egypt-but were the plundered wrappings of men, bulls, crocodiles and cats, tern from the respectable defunct members of the same. What a scen to call up the grim past.

Strange Case.

In the Court of Sessions, on Friday, on calling up the case of Sarah Ann Miller, charged with arson, a certificate was handed to the Judge, stating that she had died in prison on July 4th. This girl was colored, and was charged with setting fire to two barns on the place of Mrs. Dr. Treichel, situated on the School House lane; one in August, 1856, and the other in October, 1857. Ii was early in June last when it was found that she had committed the crime, and that was in making a confession to the Fire Detective. She was taken before Alderman Ogle, who committed sgainst her by the Grand Jury, on which, we understand, she would have pleaded guilty. At the same time she was comitted, she had an illegitimate babe, which died some weeks to the jury by the District Attorney, and a the Distract Attorney is entitled to his fees .-Sunday Transcrip, August 8th.

THE MURDER OF TAYLOR .- The alleged murderers of Woodford Taylor-a slave man and Mrs. Taylor, the wife of the murdered man -were brought before the county court of Louisa, on Monday last. The wife of Taylor was to-day, there which recently occurred, but it is discharged as there was no legal evidence against her, the free negro wassent on to the circuit court, and the case of the slave was postponed until September court. The body of the deceased, when examined at the Corner's inquest, exhibited several gashes upon the shoulders, evidently inflicted with an axe, and the skull was fractured in one place. The statewashing that the powerful tribes of the Nez ments of the accused, when arrested, were conflicting. The wife at first accused one of ber neighbors, a highly respectable gentleman, but at a subsequent examination retracted the accusation and denied any knowledge of the parties guilty of the crime. The negroes assert that the white woman did the deed, and that they happened accidentally to be present. Taylor was a dissipated man, and the impression prevails that the deceased was in a drunken frolic, and, most probably death .- Charlottesville Advocate.

The Charlottesville Advocate says:-With the exception of the immediate neighborhood of Charlottesville, the county is greatly suffering from drought. Here we have had one or two seasonable rains in the last two or three weeks, but even with them our corn is beginning to show serious injury, and unless soon revived by rain, will fall considerably behind our former calculations. Elsewhere in the county, the corn crop has already been very seriously injured, and there is now every prospect of a very poor crop.

John W. Bear, a valued citizen of Charlottesville died at his residence in that place on Thursday.
